COST-SHARE SIGNUP FOR PONDS

Signup for cost-share assistance on water impoundment structures (new construction only) will begin January 2nd and end February 7th. Those interested in a pond must sign the pond list, fill out a landowner authorization form, and designate two areas for a potential pond. At the February board meeting, names will be randomly drawn to establish the order in which landowners will receive cost-share assistance. Once a name has been drawn and placed on the list, it cannot be replaced with another name. Landowners may come to the February board meeting to witness the drawing. There is a maximum of $15,000 for cost-share assistance per contract. Once the contract is board approved, landowners will have 90 days to start. The first five landowners with eligible sites will be funded. For more information regarding the signup, please contact the office at (816) 449-2118 ext. 3.

Your favorite game-day foods are fun, tasty and definitely Pinterest-worthy– but did you know how harmful they can be for pets? Sometimes we get distracted by guests (not to mention all those funny commercials). Don't let the distractions get in the way of keeping pets safe. And remember, if your pet accidentally gets into food, drinks, or other game-day goodies, call your veterinarian right away – ready, set, go!
